Twenty-three of our junior 4-H'ers and FHA girls participated in the Fashion Revue at the Five County Fair. Several of them were in the top four of their class. They were: Class 1 (shift or jumper) Lourdes Garcia 1st place, Martha Haley 2nd place, and Nancy Cole 4th place; Class 3 (skirt) Karen Stevens 2nd, Kelly Neville 3rd and Anne Hancock 4th; Class 4 (pants and slacks) Roxanne Martin 1st place; Class 5 (Sport Outfit) Bonnie Drinkard 1st; Class 6 (Outfit for Church or Street) Laura Walton 2nd, Maria King 3rd and Sharon Davis 4th; Class 7 (School Outfit - Winter Weight) Sheila Roach 1st place and Lorraine Garcia 2nd; Class 8 (School Outfit - Light Weight) Dana Lee 1st place, Jennifer Inge 2nd, and Lisa Puckett 4th; Class 9 (Casual Fashions) Nancy Wooldridge 1st, Laurie Cowan 2nd, and Jan Armentrout 3rd; Class 10 (Any garment by a first time exhibitor) Natashia Wooldridge 2nd place.

Several other juniors entered different classes and many of them were awarded for their outstanding achievement. We are proud of all our juniors who participated in the Five County Fair. Juniors, if you didn't get a ribbon this year, just work harder next year because all of you are winners.

Mt. Zion

Services were conducted in the morning by our pastor, Rev. Elliott. The message was wonderful, our young choir sang.

Pastors Anniversary at 3:30 p.m. Rev. J. P. Rose was the speaker. The man of God spoke wonderful words concerning Pastor Rev. Elliott. Mariet Smith was in charge. We do thank God for such a lovely message coming from Rev. Rose. May God bless and keep them both.

A covered stool with a love offering was given Rev. and Mrs. Elliott. Thanks to each one that gave.

What's Happening

By Becky Moore

Mrs. Freddie Pattie and two children, Clad and Joyce, from Dumfries, Va., are visiting this week with their parent and grandparents, Hubert and Jessie Martin. Jessie is feeling much better after her surgery on her shoulder a few weeks ago. You can go by and Jessie will show you her exercise - "How to climb the wall." (with one hand).

Sarah Vaughan, her sister, Susan Coleman and Judy Wallace and Mrs. Evelyn Garland spent last Thursday in Williamsburg. They visited several of the shops and the "Pottery" had lots of goodies. They especially enjoyed the beautiful autumn weather on the way down. Sarah and her campanion had a little car trouble, so much in fact, once they got started again, they did not cut the motor off on the way home. They ate in Farmville but left the motor running."

Alice Fay Thomas, the new shampoo lady with Barbara's Shoppe could not "let go" of one lady's head the other day. We all have heard of "hard headed" people, but Alice tells us some people have such "soft heads" and "good feeling heads", that it is just hard to "let go." (The shape of the head has something to do with it.)

Leon Spinks was on his knees and bowed his head before the fight Friday night. In front of 70,000 people at the Super Dome in New Orleans, not including the television audience. He did lose the fight, but he had the same tranquil and smiling face after the game as he did when he entered the ring.

To quote Howard Coselle, "This is the first time he had ever seen a fighter do this."
